

Educational tour to Pushpa Gujral Science City, Kapurthala under DBT Star Status Scheme (02. 03. 2023)

P.G. Department of Botany organized an educational tour for the students of BSc. II and BSc. III (Medical) to Pushpa Gujral Science City, Kapurthala, Punjab under DBT Star Status Scheme. This tour was organized in collaboration with the department of Chemistry and Physics. Students visited the Fun Science Gallery, climate change, biotechnology and heart gallery. Students saw various sections which include origin of solar system, evolution of multi cellular life, invasion of land by plants and animals, origin, growth and evolution of dinosaurs and rise of mammals. Students observed the evolution of man through models, plants belonging to various families. Students were shown a movie about the mysteries of space. Students also visited the earthquake simulator. Students saw bird gallery and Dinosaurs Park. Dr. Ravi Kant accompanied the tour.

Some photographs of the Educational tour are:

