Report on Declamation Competition
Dated 16.03.2026

A Declamation Competition on the topic “Moral Values in Punjabi Literature” was organized as per the guidelines of Principal Dr. Jasvir Singh on dated 16 March 2026 with the collaboration of the IKS Cell. The event aimed to promote awareness about ethical teachings and cultural values reflected in Punjabi literary traditions and to encourage students to express their views through public speaking. Students from M.A. Part I & II and B.A. Part I, II & III (Literature) actively participated and attended the program with great enthusiasm. The competition provided a platform for students to present their thoughts on how Punjabi literature highlights moral principles such as honesty, compassion, humanity, and social responsibility. The program was conducted in the presence of the Head of the Department, Dr. Gurpreet Kaur, along with respected faculty members Dr. Manpreet Kaur, Prof. Harpreet Kaur, and Dr. Harsimrat Kaur. Their presence motivated the students and added significance to the event. Prof. Harpreet Kaur served as the Coordinator of the program and played an important role in organizing and successfully conducting the competition. The faculty members appreciated the students for their confidence, clarity of ideas, and understanding of Punjabi literary values. The event concluded with encouraging remarks from the teachers, who emphasized the importance of preserving moral values through literature and daily life. Overall, the declamation competition proved to be an insightful and inspiring academic activity for the students.
