Celebration Activity: Intellectual Property Rights Day

Date: 06 May 2025

Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib, celebrated "Intellectual Property Rights Day" on May 6, 2025, with a focus on fostering a spirit of creativity and technological advancement among its students. As a key highlight of the celebrations, an expert lecture was conducted by Dr. Parampreet Singh for the students of the College. This initiative was undertaken with the aim of enriching their knowledge, inspiring innovative thinking, and bridging the gap between academic learning and real-world technological trends. The entire event was successfully executed under the distinguished guidance of Dr. Jasvir Singh, Principal of the college, and Dr. Gurpreet Kaur, Convenor of the Institution's Innovation Council (IIC).

Objectives:

1. To stimulate interest in research and development of Intellectual Property Rights, showcasing the dynamic nature.
2. To guide students on potential career paths and entrepreneurial ventures within the realm of innovation.
3. To provide practical insights and industry perspectives, thereby bridging the theoretical knowledge gained in classrooms with practical industry demands.

Benefits:

1. To inspire and motivate students by exposing them to cutting-edge developments and real-world applications in Intellectual Property Rights.
2. To foster an innovative mindset among students, encouraging them to identify problems and devise creative solutions with the help of Intellectual Property Rights.
