Visit to Future Growers Farm, Ghanauli

Department of Agriculture

The Department of Agriculture, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College Sri Anandpur Sahib in collaboration with Institutions Innovation Council and Agrarian Society organized an educational visit to Futures Grower Farm, Ghanauli, Ropar on 6th April, 2026 for students of B.Sc. Hons. Agriculture. The main motivation behind the visit to provide students with practical knowledge and real-life exposure to sustainable and eco-friendly agricultural practices. The visit aimed to enhance students' understanding of organic farming techniques such as the use of natural fertilizers, bio-pesticides, composting, and crop rotation. It also focused on creating awareness about the importance of soil health, environmental conservation, and reducing dependency on chemical inputs. Additionally, the visit was intended to inspire students to adopt innovative and sustainable farming methods in their future agricultural practices, thereby contributing to safe food production and sustainable development. Head of the department, Prof. Bhawna Thakur appreciated the initiative taken by the department, stating that such educational visits bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical exposure.

Dr. Jasvir Singh, Principal of the college, reiterated the institution's commitment to experiential learning as a vital component in nurturing student entrepreneurship. The visit was conducted under the guidance of Professor Bhawna Thakur, Head of the Department. Professor Gurpreet Singh and Professor Harpreet Kaur supervised the visit and emphasized the importance of such field experiences in developing practical skills and enhancing students' career readiness. A group of 50 students of Department of Agriculture was part of this visit.

No. of students participated: 50
