

Training Program on Mushroom Culture and Hydroponics under DBT Star Status Scheme (31.03. 2023)

Department of Botany organized a training program under DBT Star Status on Mushroom Culture and Hydroponics for the students of BSc.-I, II and III (Medical) at Khan Mushroom Farm and Training Centre, Nangal Salangari, Una. Resource person, Mr. Yusuf Khan, delivered lectures on the techniques of Mushroom culture and cultivation of plants through hydroponics. Students learnt the process of preparation of compost and spawn required for the development of Mushroom and process of development of plants belong to different species like cucumber, strawberry and spinach. Students visited the composting unit, Mushroom growing unit, green houses and Mushroom culture rooms to observe the growing mushroom and plants at different stages of development. Dr. Ravi Kant accompanied the students.

Some images of the Program are:

