

Educational Visit of Students of Bsc.(Hons.) Agriculture to the Farmers Training Camp

The students (30) of B.Sc. (Hons) Agriculture of Department of Agriculture visited the farmers training camp organized by Agriculture Department. (Govt. of Punjab) at Ajouli Rupnagar on 04-02-2025 in which students exhibit medicinal plants under the guidance and coordination of Prof. Kamal Kumar Dean Agriculture Sciences and Prof. Sidharth organize the smooth functioning of exhibition. Honorable ADC Chander Jyoti Singh District Rupnagar, SDM Anamjyot kaur and chief Dr. Rakesh Kumar Agriculture Department Govt. of Punjab visit the exhibition stall and praise the efforts and encourage the students and staff to sustain such creative practices, and Prof. Kamal kumar also honoured on this occasion by cheif guest ADC Rupnagar and other officials. He also delivered a lecture on " Benefits of Neem Cultivation" among farmers successfully and encourage them for adoption of cultivation neem on this occasion. Principal Dr. Jasvir Singh congratulate for the success of event and encourages the students for participation for their futuristic tasks.

