

Inter college food fest

Department of Agriculture

The Department of Agriculture, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib in collaboration with Institutions Innovation Council (IIC) organise an intercollege food fest, showcasing a wide range of creative stalls. The event was held on 08-08-2025, providing a platform for students to establish food businesses and skills of entrepreneur. Visitors also appreciate the interactive elements of exhibition such as live food preparation which engage them with new learning techniques. Overall, the exhibition of food stalls was a resounding success, offering a vibrant platform for food enthusiasts to discover new Flavors and culinary trends. The event succeeded in bringing together a diverse group of exhibitors and visitors, fostering community engagement and providing valuable exposure to food businesses. Dr. Jasvir Singh the college principal encouraged students to explore entrepreneurship and emphasized the advantages of self-employment and the importance of healthy eating. The event was judged by Dr. Gurpreet Kaur (HOD) Department of English, Prof. Bhawna Thakur (HOD) Department of Agriculture, Assitant Prof. Jaspreet Kaur (Department of Geography). The First Prize was awarded to B.Voc Food Processing and students from Babbar Akali Memorial Khalsa College, Garshankar, second prize went to B.Sc (H) Agriculture (Sem V) and students from Babbar Akali Memorial Khalsa College, Garshankar. and Third prize was given to B.Sc (H) Agriculture (Sem VII). The event was coordinated by Prof. Bhawna Thakur (Head of Department) along with the faculty members of department of Agriculture.

Total Number of students: 125

