

SRI GURU TEG BAHADUR KHALSA COLLEGE , SRI ANANDPUR SAHIB

Post Graduate Punjabi Department

Activity: Importance of Books

Dated: 01.10.2025

The college's Postgraduate Punjabi Department, Punjabi Sahit Sabha and Panth Ratan Jathedar Gurcharan Singh Tohra Memorial Library jointly organized a slogan writing competition on "Importance of Books". Students of M.A. Punjabi, B.A. and B.Sc. Hons. Mathematics participated in this competition. On this occasion, the college principal Dr. Jasvir Singh made the students aware of the importance of books. He motivated the students to read as many books as possible and make good use of their free time. The students who came in first, second and third positions were honored. The head of the Punjabi Department Dr. Gurpreet Kaur thanked Mrs. Mandeep Kaur Librarian and the entire library staff for their support for this competition. On this occasion, Prof. Ravinder Singh, Prof. Sukhwinder Singh, Program Coordinator Dr. Manpreet Kaur, Prof. Harpreet Kaur, Dr. Harsimrat Kaur, Prof. Dinesh Kumar, Dr. Sukhwinder Kaur, Prof. Babanjot Singh, S. Tajinder Singh and S. Paramjit Singh were present.

