Post Graduate Punjabi Department

Review Writing

Dated: 10.10.2025

The Panth Ratan Jathedar Gurcharan Singh Tohra Memorial Library of the college and the Postgraduate Punjabi Department jointly organized a "Review Writing Competition" as per the guidelines of the Directorate of Education to instill interest in reading books and analytical insight in the students. M.A. Punjabi students participated in this competition. On this occasion, the College Principal Dr. Jasvir Singh said that with such competitions, not only does the research vision develop in the students, but they will also be able to write research papers and study books in depth. It is worth mentioning that some time ago, in the review writing workshop organized by the Punjabi Department, the Program Coordinator Dr. Harsimrat Kaur informed the students about the points of writing reviews, on the basis of which the students wrote reviews today. On this occasion, Dr. Gurpreet Kaur, Head of the Punjabi Department, Mrs. Mandeep Kaur, Librarian, Prof. Harpreet Kaur and the entire library staff were present.
