Organized a Documentary Film on

“Famous Greek Philosopher- Aristotle”

The PG Department of Political Science organized a screening of a documentary video on 24.2. 2026 on the famous Greek philosopher Aristotle for the students. The main objective of this activity was to provide students with better knowledge about his life, ideas, and contributions to Political Science.

The video included information about Aristotle’s life, his famous works, his political philosophy, his views on the state, and his classification of forms of government. Students were also informed why Aristotle is called the “Father of Political Science” and how his ideas remain relevant in modern political systems. The College Principal, Dr. Jasvir Singh motivated the students for different activities.

On this occasion, the Head of the Department (HOD) also addressed the students and shared brief information about the importance of Aristotle's ideas. Students were encouraged to study the theories of great thinkers in depth. Such documentaries help in increasing students' knowledge, developing interest in the subject, and understanding the contributions of historical thinkers. On this occasion all the faculty member and students of Department were present.
