

Report on Orientation Programme – Commerce Stream

Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib
PG Department of Commerce and Management

The PG Department of Commerce and Management, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib, successfully organized an Orientation Programme for the newly admitted students of the Commerce Stream at 10.00 am on 27th July 2026 in the Conference Room. The programme was conducted with the objective of familiarizing students with the academic environment, institutional policies, facilities, and opportunities available on campus. The session commenced with an inspiring address by Dr. Jasvir Singh, Principal, who warmly welcomed the new students and encouraged them to pursue academic excellence while actively participating in co-curricular and extracurricular activities. He emphasized the importance of discipline, ethical values, and holistic personality development during their college life. This was followed by an informative session by Dr. Manjeet Singh, Head of the Department, who introduced the students to the Department of Commerce and Management. He explained the various undergraduate and postgraduate programmes, curriculum structure, teaching-learning practices, departmental activities, and career opportunities available to commerce students. The next session was conducted by Dr. Parampreet Singh, who explained the examination system, including the semester pattern, internal assessment, attendance requirements, university regulations, and examination guidelines. Students were advised to maintain regular attendance and prepare consistently throughout the semester. Thereafter, Dr. Devinder Singh provided detailed information regarding scholarship schemes, financial assistance, eligibility criteria, and the application process for various scholarships offered by the Government and various institutions. Students were encouraged to avail themselves of these opportunities wherever applicable. The Library Orientation was conducted by Mrs. Mandeep Kaur, who acquainted the students with the library resources, membership procedure, borrowing rules, digital resources, e-library services, and reading facilities available in the college. The final session was delivered by Dr. Jagpinderpal Singh, who highlighted the importance of extra-curricular activities, including NSS, NCC, cultural programmes. He motivated the students to actively participate in these activities for their overall personality development. The orientation programme proved to be highly informative and interactive. Students actively participated in the sessions. The programme helped the new entrants become familiar with the institutional environment and inspired them to begin their academic journey with confidence and enthusiasm. The programme concluded with a formal Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Navjeet Kaur, expressing sincere gratitude to the principal, all the resource persons, faculty members, supporting staff, and students for their enthusiastic participation and valuable contributions to the successful organization of the event.

The programme was coordinated by Dr. Navjit Kaur, Dr. Manpreet Kaur, and Prof. Ramneet Kaur.
