

Report of Seven-Day NSS Camp

11 to 17 March 2025

NSS Department

Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Department of Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib organized a successful seven-day NSS camp at Village Mehain. The camp commenced with a grand inauguration ceremony and witnessed enthusiastic participation from volunteers. The camp began with an inauguration ceremony, where the Dr Jasvir Singh Principal of Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib officially launched the camp. In his address, the Principal highlighted the significance of community service and the importance of such camps in building leadership and social responsibility among students. A total of 150 volunteers, 50 from each of the three NSS units, participated in the camp. The coordination and active involvement of the NSS Program Officers, including Prof. Jagpinderpal Singh, Dr. Amandeep Kaur, and Dr. Virpal Singh, ensured the smooth execution of activities.

