HOLLA MAHALLA CAMP 2026

NSS Department of Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Anandpur Sahib organized four days special NSS camp on the occasion of Holla Mahalla on 2nd to 5th March 2026. 65 Volunteers from three units of NSS participated in this camp. Volunteers performed various activities like guiding the sangat, helping the elderly and kids, Joda ghar service and langar sewa, Community book reading service by library of the college. All the NSS Program officers, Prof Jagpinderpal Singh, Dr Amandeep Kaur, Dr Virpal Singh were present during the camp. On the auspicious occasion of Holi Mohalla, a festival that reflects courage, discipline, and service inspired by the teachings of Guru Gobind Singh, Principal Dr Jasvir Singh said that we feel proud to see our NSS volunteers gathered with a spirit of dedication and social responsibility. He also added that the NSS camp is not just an activity; it is a platform to learn the true meaning of service, teamwork, and leadership. Your efforts in helping the community, spreading awareness, and working together reflect the core values of the National Service Scheme “Not Me, But You.”
